

Antioch Urban Ministries, Inc.

...serving the least of these.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANTIOCH URBAN MINISTRIES HOSTS THE 21ST ANNUAL TOY GIVEAWAY FOR DESERVING YOUTHS

ATLANTA, GA DECEMBER 19, 2013-- The American economy is showing economic improvement however many families continue to grapple with low wages or unemployment; making Christmas gift giving difficult for some Atlanta area parents. For 21 years Antioch Urban Ministries has met this challenge head on by collecting new and unwrapped toys and distributing them to any family that simply asks for help. This year AUMI will provide Christmas gifts to 1000 children.

On Saturday December 21, 2013 families are welcome to come to the 21st Annual Toy Giveaway from 10am to 12pm at Antioch Baptist Church North Campus 590 North Avenue NW Atlanta, Georgia 30318. Food will be served and special Christmas entertainment will make this 21st Annual Toy Giveaway a day to celebrate and remember for all.

There is still time to make a contribution of toys to this worthy effort by coming to the 21st Annual Toy Giveaway by 9am on Saturday December 21, 2013. Donators are asked to bring new and unwrapped toys for children 1 to 16 years of age. Often less gifts are donated for older youth and gifts to accommodate this age group would be greatly appreciated. This event is powered by Antioch Urban Ministries INC, Stimulate America, United Corp International Kitchen & Bath, MILOS and many considerate citizens for their toy donations.

###

For additional information contact:

Terry Hightower
(404) 688-5679 (Office)
(678) 406-7500- (Mobile)
tlhightower@gmail.com

About Antioch Urban Ministries (AUMI): A Georgia 501C-3 non-profit incorporated in 1991 serving as an advocate for the relief of the poor and disadvantaged. Through the design, development, and implementation of residential and human service programs, AUMI has become a viable force in bringing about social, economic, and political change for the homeless and indigent citizens of metropolitan Atlanta. AUMI continues to experience phenomenal growth in its response to the unmet needs of the poor and special needs populations of the homeless sector. AntiochUrban.org